Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: Scholastics Book Fair

The Scholastic Book Fair has arrived in school to celebrate National Poetry Day, which was on 3rd October 2024! Your children will be looking through the amazing books on sale throughout the school day.

The fair will be open after school from 3:30pm until 4:00pm this week, should you wish to browse and select from the full selection for yourself with your child. The Book Fair will close on Wednesday 10th October.

If you wish to purchase books the easiest way to do this is to scan the QR code below, enter the school postcode SE10 9AN and select St Joseph's RC Primary School. This will allow you to pay online. You can do this at the book fair or choose and purchase from home.

As always, we really appreciate your support at this successful event – not only does it encourage your child's enthusiasm for books and reading for pleasure, but the school also receives generous commission on every book that we sell, allowing us to buy books for the classroom and our growing library that will benefit all of the children. At the last fair, you helped raise a huge amount towards new books for which we are very grateful!

Yours sincerely,

L Cafun
