Dear Parents/Carers,

The Scholastic Book Fair has arrived in school to help us celebrate National Poetry Day! You can view some of the books here: Scholastic Book Fair

Your child will have the opportunity to pick a book that they like and bring home details of this book on the day that they visit the fair with their teacher.

The fair will be open after school from 3:30pm until 4:00pm on Monday 10th October and Tuesday 11th October, should you wish to browse and select from the full selection for yourself with your child. The Book Fair will close on Thursday 13th October.

If you wish to purchase the book your child selects the easiest way is to do this is to scan the PR code below and put in the school postcode SE10 9AN and select St Joseph's RC Primary School and pay online. There are two options you can do this at the book fair or from home.

As always, we really appreciate your support at this successful event – not only does it encourage your child's enthusiasm for books and reading for pleasure, but the school also receives generous commission on every book that we sell, allowing us to buy books for the classroom and our growing library that will benefit all of the children. At the last fair, you helped raise a huge amount towards new books!

Yours sincerely,

Mrs England
